Data Base

Package – Data
This package will handle all the data management tasks, such as reading and writing data from and to files, as well as storing the data in memory.

Statistics
This class will store the statistical data for the library, such as the number of borrowed books per day and the most borrowed books

FileHandler
This class will handle all the file I/O operations, such as reading the boo data from a file and writing the statistics data to a file